Further to the recent consultation by the Governing Body of Huyton with Roby CE Primary School please find attached the responses to the questions raised during the consultation.

The Governing Body have thoughtfully and thoroughly considered the questions and responses submitted as part of the consultation from parents, staff and other stakeholders.

Following on from the consultation, the Governing Body confirm their intention to apply for conversion to academy status and join the family of schools in the Liverpool Diocesan Schools Trust.

The Governing Body will continue to take questions and communication from stakeholders and will strive to keep stakeholders updated with the process.
