

Core British Values

I can recognise that it is unacceptable to dismiss the beliefs and opinions of anyone.
I understand that discussions about sensitive issues will be controlled and structured.

I can influence the way the school runs through the school council committees and by talking to staff.
I can influence my lesson by putting my hand up and responding.

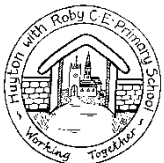

I can recognise that I am equally responsible for my learning as the teacher.
I take responsibilities for all my actions – good or bad.
We all have a responsibility to promote and protect the wellbeing of others.

I am free to think as I see fit.
I have the freedom to make choices that affect me but I recognise I am accountable for all my actions.

I understand that the school rules are used to mirror society laws and must be respected.
I recognise that there will be consequences for my actions.

I recognise that everyone is entitled to their opinion as long as it does not promote extremism.
I understand that everyone is entitled to a voice within the classroom.
I will listen to others as I would like to be listened to.
