

G Suite for Education (inc. Classroom) Privacy Information

At Huyton with Roby C of E Primary School, we use G Suite for Education, and we are seeking your permission to provide and manage a G Suite for Education account for your child. G Suite for Education is a set of education productivity tools from Google that include Gmail, Calendar, Docs and Classroom, amongst many others. These are used by tens of millions of students and teachers around the world. An Education account means that data is not collected for advertising purposes and no adverts will appear whilst a pupil is using these tools. At Huyton with Roby C of E Primary School, students will use their G Suite accounts to complete assignments, communicate with their teachers and learn 21st century digital citizenship skills.

The notice below provides answers to common questions about what Google can and cannot do with your child's personal information, including:

- What personal information does Google collect?
- How does Google use this information?
- Will Google disclose my child's personal information?
- Does Google use student personal information for users in primary and secondary schools to target advertising?
- Can my child share information with others using the G Suite for Education account?

Please read it carefully and if you have any questions please contact the school and let us know. G Suite for Education Notice to Parents and Guardians

Google provides information about the information it collects, as well as how it uses and discloses the information it collects from G Suite for Education accounts in its G Suite for Education Privacy Notice. You can read that notice online at https://gsuite.google.com/terms/education\_privacy.html You should review this information in its entirety, but below are answers to some common questions: What personal information does Google collect?

When creating a student account, Huyton with Roby C of E Primary School may provide Google with certain personal information about the student, including their name, school (G Suite) email address, and password.

When a student uses Google services, Google also collects information based on the use of those services. This includes:

- device information, such as the hardware model, operating system version, unique device identifiers, and mobile network information including phone number;
  - log information, including details of how a user used Google services, device event information, and the user's Internet protocol (IP) address;
  - location information, as determined by various technologies including IP address, GPS, and other sensors;
  - unique application numbers, such as application version number; and
  - cookies or similar technologies which are used to collect and store information about a browser or device, such as preferred language and other settings.
- How does Google use this information?

In G Suite for Education Core Services, Google uses student personal information to provide, maintain, and protect the services. Google does not serve ads in the Core Services or use personal information collected in the Core Services for advertising purposes.

In Google Additional Services, Google uses the information collected from all Additional Services to provide, maintain, protect and improve them, to develop new ones, and to protect Google and its users. Google may also use this information to offer tailored content, such as more relevant search results. Google may combine personal information from one service with information, including personal information, from other Google services. Does Google use student personal information for users in primary and secondary schools to target advertising?

No. For G Suite for Education users in primary and secondary schools, Google does not use any user personal information (or any information associated with an G Suite for Education Account) to target ads, whether in Core Services or in other Additional Services accessed while using a G Suite for Education account. Can my child share information with others using the G Suite for Education account?

We may allow students to access Google services such as Google Docs and Sites, which include features where users can share information with others or publicly. When users share information publicly, it may be indexable by search engines, including Google.
