Phonics & pronunciation we will see:

Recommended phonics focus: CH OU ON OI

- CH sound in chaperon, bouche & bûcheron
- OU sound in rouge, loup, bouche & genoux
- ON sound in chaperon, maison & bûcheron.
- Silent letters and liaison. The last consonants in French words are often silent as seen in the word pied. The final letter 's' in les is sometimes pronounced and sometimes not. When les is used in front of a word that starts with a consonant, you DO NOT hear the 's' on the end of les eg. les pieds the feet. When les is used in front of a word that starts with a vowel, most words starting with h, and the French word y, you DO pronounce the s on the end of les as seen in les yeux and les oreilles.
